On Wednesday, April 18, the Information Policy, Census, and National Archives Subcommittee held a hearing on ensuring fairness in elections involving electronic voting machines.

The following witnesses testified:

- Hon. Gracia Hillman, Commissioner, U.S. Election Assistance Commission
- Mr. Randolph Hite, Director, Information Technology Architecture and Systems, U.S. Government Accountability Office
 - Hon. Robin Carnahan, Secretary of State, State of Missouri
- Avi D. Rubin, Ph.D., Technical Director, Information Security Institute, Department of Computer Science, Johns Hopkins University
- Mr. John S. Groh, Vice President, Election Systems & Software International, and Chairman, Election Technology Council
- Diane Golden, Ph.D., Director, Missouri Assistive Technology Council (on behalf of the National Association of Assistive Technology Act Programs)

Documents and Links

- Chairman Clay's Opening Statement
- Ranking Member Rep. Turner's Statement
- Rep. Maloney's Statement
- Rep. Yarmuth's Statement
- Rep. Sali's Statement
- Testimony of Gracia Hillman
- Testimony of Randolph Hite
- Testimony of Robin Carnahan
- Testimony of Avi D. Rubin
- Testimony of John S. Groh
- Testimony of Diane Golden